

Solid Platforms, Inc. Celebrates 25th Anniversary

(Portage, IN) October 30, 2015 – Solid Platforms, Inc. recently celebrated twenty-five years in business. This milestone was celebrated at Avalon Manor Banquet Center in Merrillville, IN. In attendance were over 400 invited guests, including employees and management representatives of local industry.

Jason Lammertin, President & Chief Operating Officer, served as the master of ceremonies. He offered a heartfelt welcome and shared opening comments with all. A chronological history of events served as his guideline detailing the growth and success of Solid Platforms, Inc. since its incorporation in 1990. He spoke fondly of the founder of the company, Paul K. Graegin who became his friend and mentor. Lammertin also presented to Barbara A. Graegin, wife of Paul, the company's most recent and meaningful award. This award recognized Solid Platforms, Inc. as one of the Safest Companies in America, which was bestowed by the national publication EHS Today, the leading magazine in occupational health and safety in the workplace.

Guest speakers attested to Solid Platforms, Inc. strong commitment to safety through hands on experience in working with them on various projects throughout the years. Each cited that when the need for scaffolding is determined, their immediate decision is to contact Solid Platforms, Inc. knowing that they can be assured that the scaffolding will be built safely by trained professionals.

Lammertin stated that “The growth of this company has been unbelievable. To be recognized as a leader in the scaffold industry is due to the safe work efforts, and attention to detail, of all the employees in our organization. We consistently work in some of the most challenging environments that our customers have, sometimes under fresh air, in confined spaces or at extreme elevations. We provide safe worker access for all owner client personnel and fellow tradesman who trust that the scaffolding is built properly and will not fail. Solid Platforms, Inc. is truly a safety company. It's all about doing things right the first time. In our business there are no second chances.”
